Attorney General McGraw Joins Mortgage Foreclosure Multi-State Group

CHARLESTON - Citing the recent discovery that some mortgage loan servicers have submitted affidavits or signed other documents that appear to have procedural defects, West Virginia Attorney General Darrell McGraw has joined a mortgage foreclosure multistate group.

Among other things, some documents were signed by persons who did not have personal knowledge of the facts contained therein.

"Homeowners have been devastated by foreclosures," McGraw said. "Now it appears the process utilized by the mortgage servicers is flawed."

Currently, 49 state attorneys general and 39 state banking or mortgage departments have joined this multistate effort.

West Virginia consumers can file complaints or alert the Attorney General's Office to unfair or deceptive practices by calling the Consumer Protection Hot Line, 1-800-368-8808, or by obtaining a complaint form from the consumer web page at www.wvago.gov.
